

From: Peter Spice
To: sentencingcouncil
Subject: EDRMS: Review of penalties for attacks on Police and emergency workers
Date: Wednesday, 29 July 2020 10:55:31 PM

---

Review of penalties for attacks on Police and emergency workers.

One of the biggest problems is the running of concurrent sentence.

So if an inmate attacks a correctional officer, and it actualizes makes it to court and a conviction

They will run it concurrently. So if he gets a 6 month sentence for the attack and he is already serving longer he gets it for free and learns that's it ok to attack officers with no penalties.

They need to run consecutively, added to end of sentence.

thanks

---

DISCLAIMER: This email message, including any attachments, is intended for the individual or entity to whom it is addressed and may contain information that is confidential, privileged and/or exempt from disclosure under applicable law. If you have received this email in error you must not disclose or use the information in it. Please delete the email and any copies and notify the sender. Confidentiality or privilege are not waived or lost by reason of the mistaken delivery to you. Views expressed in this message are those of the individual sender, and are not necessarily the views of the Department of Communities and Justice. The Department accepts no liability for any loss or damage arising from the use of this email or attachments and recommends that the recipient check this email and any attached files for the presence of viruses.

Use of electronic mail is subject to NSW Department of Communities and Justice policy and guidelines.